Paper Specifications

These specifications concern the B.EP.T3Ang.Mp module.
The paper is due by email by midnight of Friday 28 August.

Requirements

Your paper should

- comprise no fewer than 3,500 and no more than 5,000 words

- concern any aspect of early Germanic religion

- refer to primary texts in the original language, whose quotations should be accompanied by translations (your own or cited from a scholarly source)

- engage directly with at least one Old Germanic language (by providing your own translations or discussing original-language concepts)

- use at least half a dozen secondary sources

- make consistent use of a prominent humanities stylesheet (MLA, CMOS, or MHRA)

    For further guidance, see the resources at http://studium.langeslag.org/peer/

Marking Grid

The following marking grid gives a rough but unweighted idea of the considerations used in marking your paper:

Aspect	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10
Argument (quality, originality)
Structure
Close reading & analysis
Structural use of primary sources
Use of secondary sources
Grasp of source language
Cultural context
Command of academic English
Mechanics (style, referencing, formatting)
Length										